Key Rule for Concessions In the Indian Railways, when a passenger is granted a travel concession (such as for students, patients, or certain awardees), the concession applies only to the Basic Fare. Fixed Charges: All other auxiliary charges, such as Reservation Charges, Superfast Surcharges, and Catering Charges, are collected in full at the normal rates. Concession Calculation: The concession is never applied to the reservation fee itself; hence, there is no such thing as a "discounted" reservation charge.*
